Llama Llama, warm in bed.
Wakey, wakey, sleepyhead!
Llama school begins today!
Time to learn and time to play!

Make the bed and find some clothes.

Eat some breakfast.
Clean the plate.

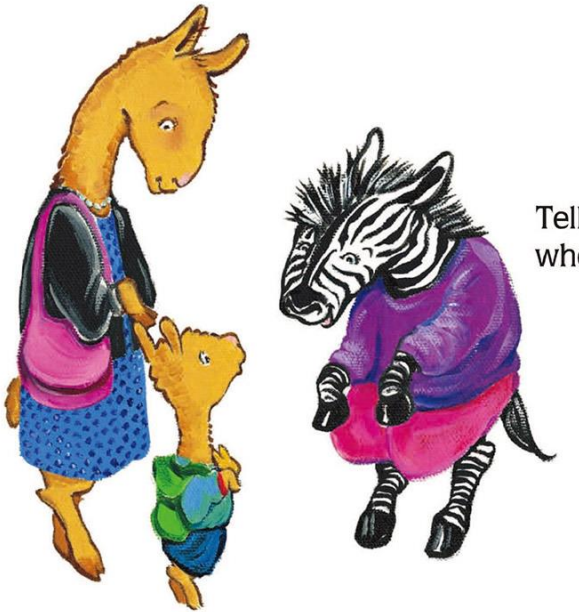

Brush the teeth
and blow the nose.

Whoops!
Oh my—we're running late!

Drive to school
and park the car.

Tell the teacher who you are.

Hang the coat
and say good-bye.

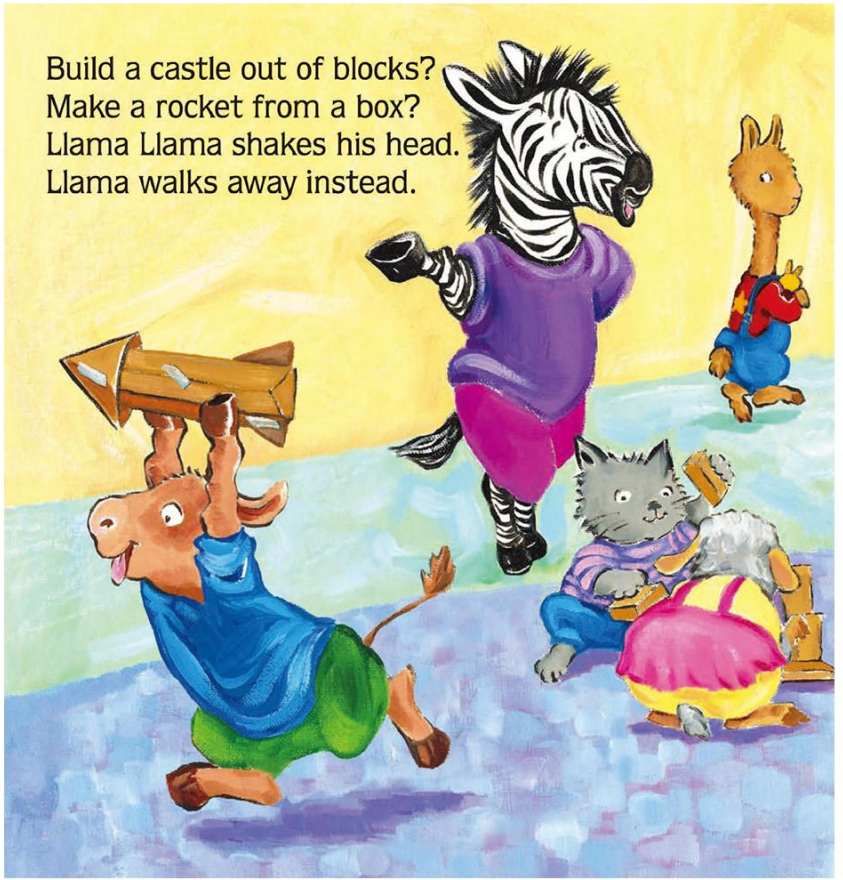

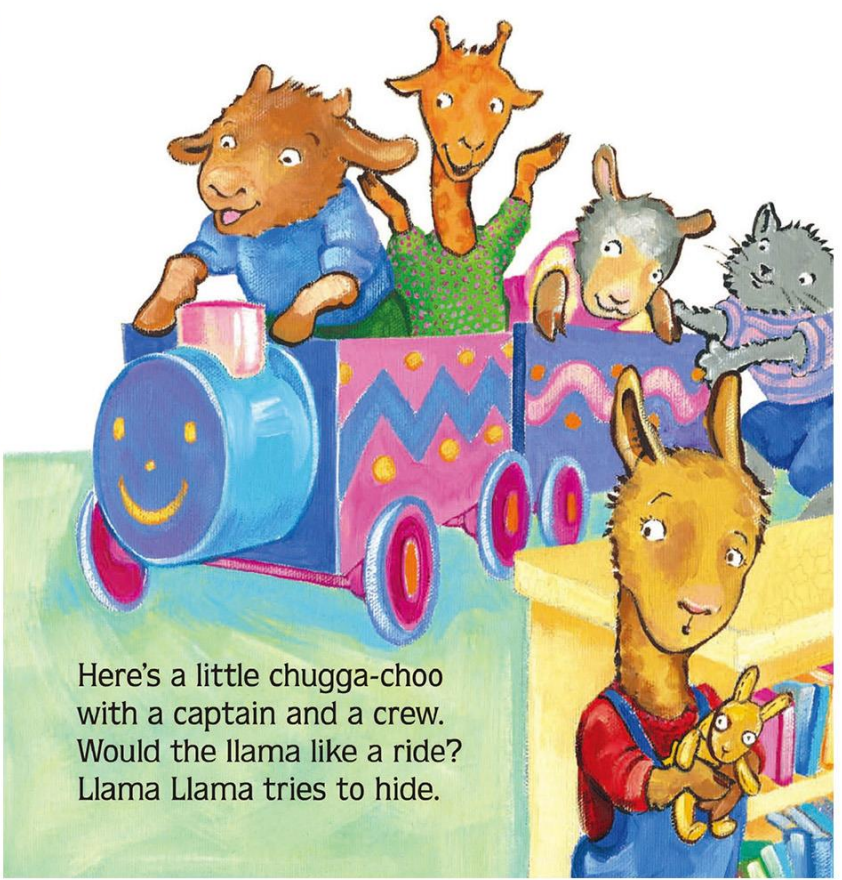

Llama Llama
feeling shy. . . .

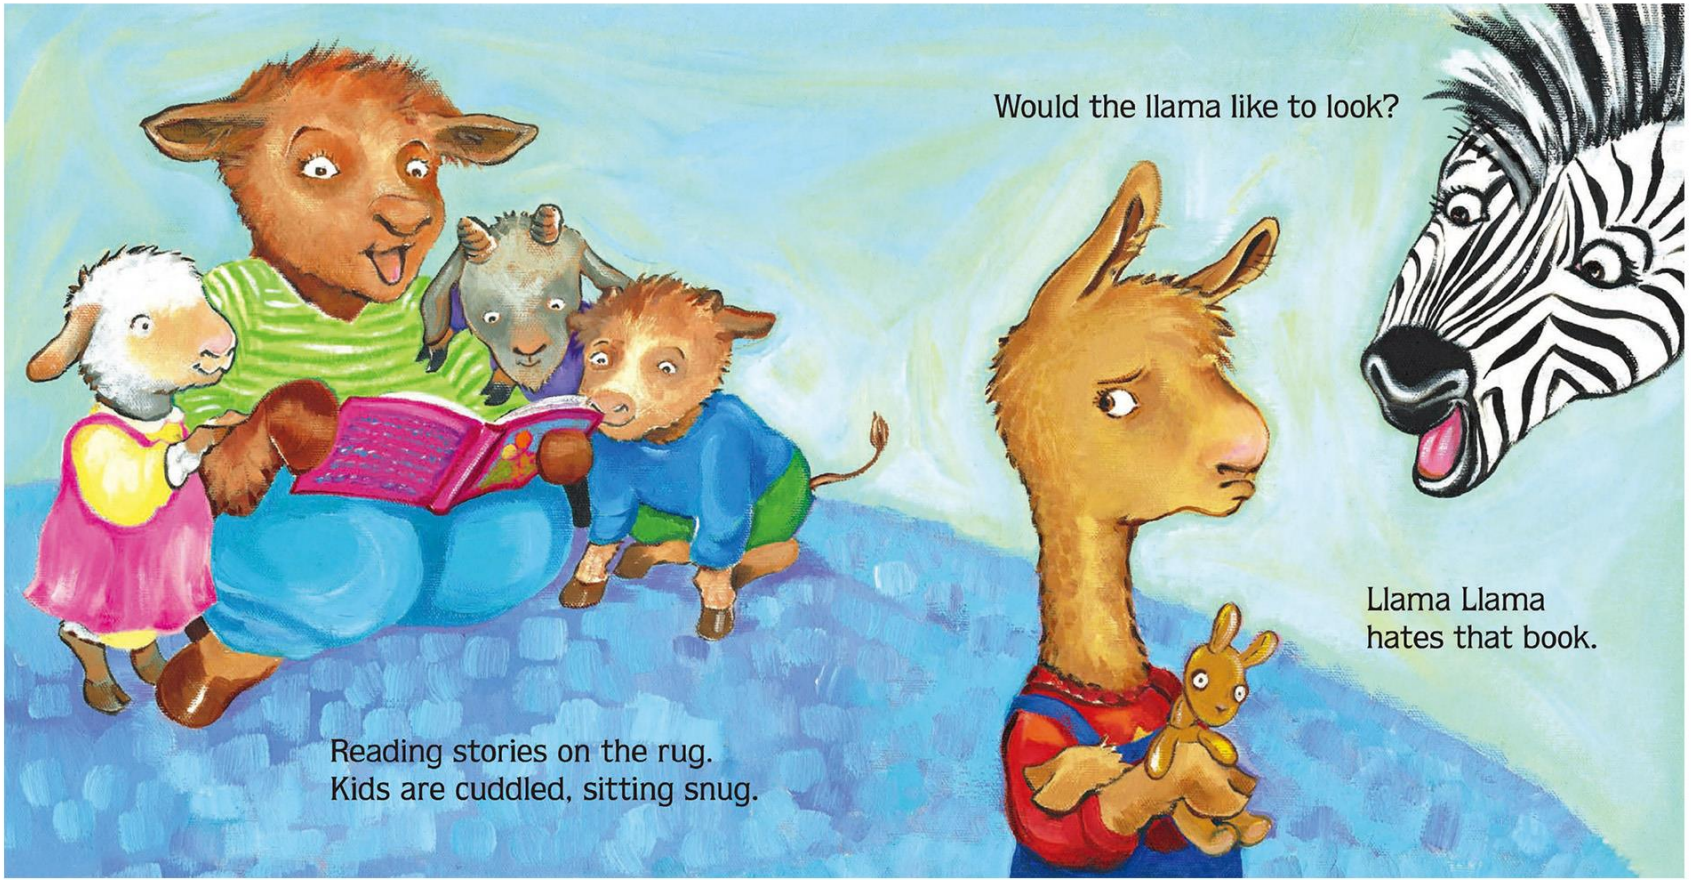

Mama Llama goes away.
Llama Llama has to stay.

Strange new teacher.
Strange new toys.
Lots of kids
and lots of noise!
What would Llama like to do?
Llama Llama feels so new. . . .

Build a castle out of blocks?
Make a rocket from a box?
Llama Llama shakes his head.
Llama walks away instead.

Here's a little chugga-choo
with a captain and a crew.
Would the llama like a ride?
Llama Llama tries to hide.

Would the llama like to look?
Llama Llama
hates that book.
Reading stories on the rug.
Kids are cuddled, sitting snug.

Time for lunch! Now find a seat.

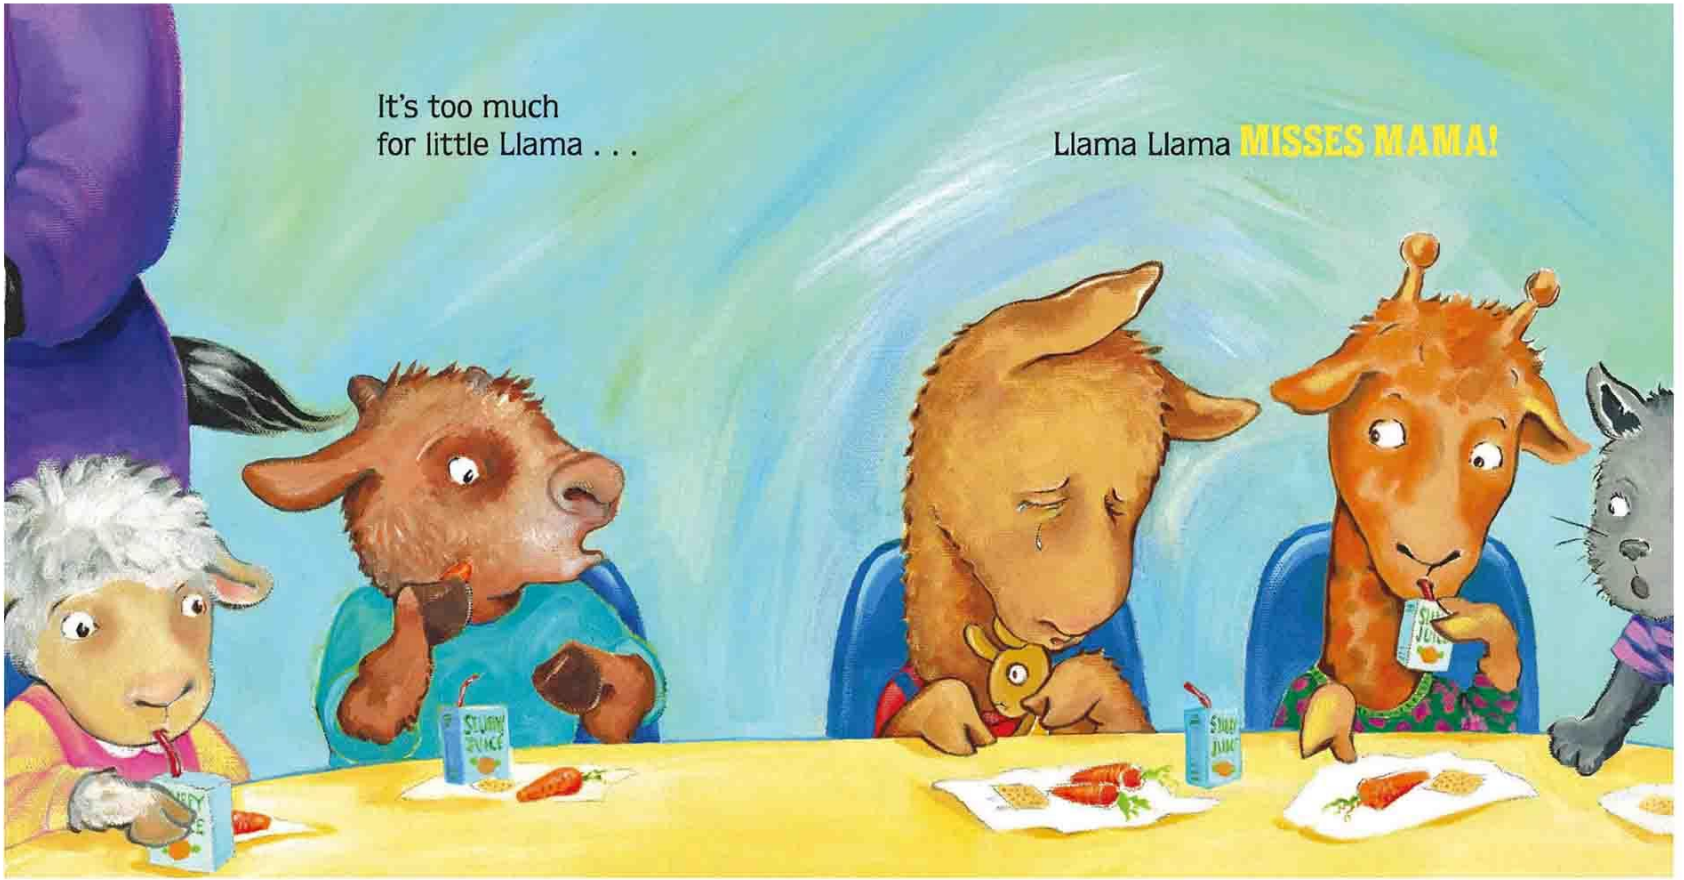

Llama doesn't want to eat.
Llama makes a little moan.
Llama Llama feels alone.

Llama misses Mama so. . . .

Why did Mama Llama go?

It's too much for little Llama . . .
Llama Llama MISSES MAMA!

Don't be sad, new little llama!
It's OK to miss your mama.
But don't forget—
when day is through,
she will come right back to you.

Llama Llama, please don't fuss.
Have some fun and play with us!

Put on coats and run outside.
See the playhouse! Try the slide.

Tag and jump rope. Hide and seek.
Close your eyes and do not peek!

Now it's time to draw and write.
Great big crayons.
Colors bright.

Take some paper
from the stack . . .

MAMA LLAMA!
YOU CAME BACK!!!

Teacher gets a good-bye hug.

Wave to friends on reading rug.

Climb the playhouse with the slide.
See if Mama fits inside.

He loves Mama . . .

and SCHOOL, too!
